in the lighthouse. But the Union Government made this distinction, namely, that a lighthouse is a Union affair but that signalling meant for a minor port is a State affair, thereby meaning that we can utilize the convenience afforded by the minor port to use the signals for the ships to come and go.

Sri. A. K. Patchu Pillai: May I know whether this Government have sought the best legal advice available on this particular subject?

Sri. C. Kesavan: If necessary we can seek advice, but the budget was not prepared after seeking legal advice.

Sri. A. K. Patchu Pillai: May I know whether the Government will be prepared to seek legal advice at least hereafter, so that the question may be fought again and our cause urged?

Sri. C. Kesavan: Government will always get legal advice wherever there is necessity for legal advice, and if there is any complication later on that will be referred to the Legal Department and even to expert legal heads.

Sri. P. S. Nataraja Pillai: May I know whether lighthouse is not a subject included in the Union list?

Sri. C. Kesavan: Yes.

Sri. P. S. Nataraja Pillai: Is not "minor port" under the State list?

Sri. C. Kesavan: Yes.

Sri. P. S. Nataraja Pillai: Then, if that be so, as far as I can find, whatever is done in respect of the minor ports will have to be met from the State funds, while the lighthouses will be controlled by the Union Government.

Sri. C. Kesavan: It is so. I referred to signalling alone. That is distinct from lighthouse.

Mr. Speaker: The matter has heen sufficiently discussed, and I shall put the demand to vote.

The question that Government be granted a sum of Rs. 8,000 under Demand XVI—Ports and Pilotage—was put and carried.

The grant was made.

Demand XXIII—Animal Husbandry—Rs. 67,880.

Minister for Finance and Food (Sri. K. M. Korah): I move for a supplementary grant of Rs. 67,880 under Demand XXIII—Animal Husbandry Veterinary the major head being 41 Veterinary.

The Government propose to start two new schemes, namely, key farm centres and disease investigation scheme. The grant under 41 Veterinary is only Rs.4,70,700 and it is not possible to find the amount required for the purpose of these two schemes. As decided at present, the proposal is to establish four key farm centres in the State, viz., Trivandrum, Kottayam, Vytilla and Ollukara. The programme of work for the centres is to have a preliminary survey of selected villages around the farm, for ascertaining the animal husbandry conditions, extension of livestock improvement, castration of scrubs, supply of approved bulls, etc. The farm will also maintain an artificial insemination centre and a sufficient number of bulls required at each centre. The total amount that would be required for this scheme would be Rs. 3,15,424.

Mr. Speaker: Order, order. The House will now adjourn to meet again at 2·0 p.m.

The House rose for lunch at 1·0 p.m. and re-assembled at 2·0 p.m. with Mr. Speaker in the Chair.

2 p.m.]

Sri. K. M. Korah: Sir, the scheme about which I was referring this morning is based on an All-India scheme and it is to last for 4 to 5 years. There is another additional advantage, namely that 50 per cent of the expenses will be met by the Central Government.

[Sri K. M. Korah]

The second scheme is the disease investigation scheme which is also approved by the Indian Council of Agricultural Research. It consists of the appointment of Veterinary Disease Investigation officer for the state with the necessary staff to carry out a general survey of the contagious and infectious diseases of livestock and suggests methods for the efficient and systematic control of the disease. A laboratory has to be equipped for the purpose. Under these two items, the amount required is Rs. 67,880. In view of the importance of the scheme and in view of the fact that there is no provision in the bubget as this was not envisaged at the time of the preparation of the bubget, I believe that the honourable Members will readily grant this demand.

Sri. P. S. Nataraja Pillai : May I ask, whether the pilot key village scheme under 41 Veterinary (d) Breeding Operations is the same as the present scheme that is referred to ?

Sri. K. M. Korah : This is a scheme different from that.

Sri. P. S. Nataraja Pillai : May I know whether that scheme has been worked out by the Department ?

Sri. K. M. Korah : Yes.

Sri. P. S. Nataraja Pillai : Then may I know whether the four centres now indicated are in addition to the centres now being worked in Travancore ?

Sri. K. M. Korah : But these centres are for working the scheme outlined for Animal Husbandry.

Sri. P. S. Nataraja Pillai : What we find in the Budget is a provision for Pilot Key Village Scheme. How is that different from the one that is now proposed ?

Sri. K. M. Korah : There is also artificial insemination. That is the difference

Sri. K. M. Korah : It may be after all slight. We cannot now say wha it will be.

Sri. A. K. Patchu Pillai: Is the experiment to be conducted in one centre only at present or in all the four centres?

Sri. K. M. Korah: This process will be carried on in four centres

Sri. A. K. Patchu Pillai: Has that experiment been conducted anywhere?

Sri. K. M. Korah: Yes, in Trivandrum.

Sri. A. K. Patchu Pillai: What is the result of that?

Sri. K. M. Korah: Half a dozen experiments have been made and the results are being watched.

Sri. P. S. Nataraja Pillai: May I know whether there is a disease investigation scheme under 'Veterinary' even now?

Sri. K. M. Korah: Yes.

Sri. P. S. Nataraja Pillai: The additional money that is asked for is Rs. 21,000. Is it in addition to the provision of Rs. 24,000 already in the Budget?

Sri. K. M. Korah: Yes, it is in addition to that.

Sri. Ambat Eachara Menon: In what way is the amount already provided insufficient?

Sri. K. M. Korah: After seeing the actual working of the scheme, it has been found so.

Sri. P. S. Nataraja Pillai: Has the Government come to the conclusion that the existing provision is not adequate for the scheme now outlined? I want to know the ground on which additional grant is now asked for.

Sri. K. M. Korah: One ground is that the provision in the budget is quite inadequate. Secondly, this is entirely a new scheme from the one for which amount was provided in the budget.

Sri. P. S. Najaraja Pillai: Sir, a supplementary grant can be aaked for a new service or it must be for an item under which provision once made is found inadequate. As a matter of fact if the amount provided under 41 Veterinary (d) Breeding Operations—Pilot Key Village Scheme is found inadequate, the necessity for this demand can be understood. There is a provision for Investigation Officer, Livestock Inspector, Stockmen etc., as also for purchase of artificial insemination sets. The amount set apart for that comes to Rs. 24,000. What is stated here is for the appointment of Disease Investigation Officer for the State with the necessary staff to carry out a general survey of the scheme this amount is necessary. From the budget we see a provision for an Investigation Officer on a pay of Rs. 125 to 175. So already there is a Disease Investigation Officer in the Veterinary Department working in the State. This grant also is for the appointment of such an officer. That means there will be two disease investigation officers in the State in stead of the one already available. If it is the case that one officer is not sufficient for the State, that can be easily understood. From the information supplied to the House, I am not able to see that it is so. If the Government come to the House, and say that one more officer is required for the purpose, I can appreciate that fact and give my approval for that. In the face of available material in the budget, what is stated in the House is not correct. Though I do not substantially object to the provision asked for, I for one hold that due emphasis is not paid by the department for improvement of cattle. When we talk so much about grow more food scheme and improved cultivation of land and more land being handed over for cultivation and all that, Government are not at all bestowing any attention whatsoever to this aspect of the problem viz., power. Cattle is the very necessary power to grow more food. More care must be bestowed on that. May I also point out that correct information in the light of the Budget ought to be placed before the House when a demand is made.

Sri. K. M. Korah: There is this additional feature so far as this scheme is concerned. A laboratory has to be equipped for the purpose. The hon. Member will gladly concede that ever so many diseases come into existence for which a separate laboratory will be useful. The hon. Member was pointing out a provision of the Budget and emphasised that there is already an investigation officer. But that officer is different from the one now proposed. This officer will continue for 5 years for this is a five year plan. The additional advantage is that our Government will get 50 per cent contribution from the Government of India.

Sri. P. S. Nataraja Pillai: Has their sanction been secured for the 50 per cent of the amount?

Sri. K. M. Korah: The Government of India will favourably consider our request.

Sri. K. M. Korah: The Minister for Irrigation, The Finance Secretary, The Secretary to Government, The Director of Animal Husbandry.

Sri. K. M. Korah: In view of the directions given by the Government of India, as much work as possible will be started early.

Sri. D. Gnanasigamoni: Is it true that the Government of India has not made provision in respect of this till now?

Sri. K. M. Korah: I do not know how this arises. It is stated that 50 per cent of the expenses will be contributed towards this purpose.

Sri. D. Gnansigamoni: My question is whether it is true that in this year's Budget, the Government of India has not made any provision for this.

Sri. K. M. Korah: Anyway, 50 per cent of the expenses will be shared by them.
